RECIPE FOR THE FALL

Homemade Crockpot Apple Cider

Doesn't something about the fall make you appreciate places like Wilson Farm in Lexington or Russo's in Watertown? Go out on a Saturday afternoon and grab all of your fresh vegetables, meats and maybe some pie for the Pats game on Sunday.. Well, here is a recipe for a nice warm, fall apple cider that will make you want to bust out your crock-pot and experiment.

Thank you to all my past and present clients for always helping and believing in me and my business.

FICO Realty Group wouldn't be here today without you.

Happy Holidays to You and Your Families.
